PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

TRANSFUSION SAFETY STUDY

Methodology

Published

Published abstracts

Presentations

In Draft

HIV Studies of Donors and Recipients

Published

Published Abstracts

9. Transfusion Safety Study represented by EA Operskalski. Rate of progression among donors and recipients infected with the same or different HIV-1 strains. 49th Annual Meeting of the American Association of Blood Orlando. Transfusion 1996;36(Suppl):32S.

Presentations

HTLV Studies of Donors and Recipients

Published

Published Abstracts

Presentations

Publications and Presentations

Page 12

Congenital Clotting Disorders

Published

Submitted

Published Abstracts

Presentations

22. Transfusion Safety Study Group represented by MW Hilgartner. Effect of intermediate and high purity factor VIII concentrates on CD4+ counts in HIV-infected persons.

31. Transfusion Safety Study Group represented by SL Dietrich. Significance of non-AIDS deaths among HIV-1 infected

In Draft

3. Operskalski EA et al. Occurrence of hepatitis C virus infection, and interaction with HIV, among persons with hemophilia.

Congenital Anemias

Published papers

Published abstracts

Abstracts submitted

Other
(Including multi-group studies)

Published

Published Abstracts

Presentations

2. The Transfusion Safety Study Group represented by E Schiff. HBsAg status and expression of HIV infection as AIDS. Fourth International Conference on AIDS, Stockholm, June 1988.

Partial Contributions

Published Papers

Accepted Conditionally

Published Abstracts

2. Delwart E, Busch MP, Mosley JW, Mullins JI. Use of DNA heteroduplex tracking analysis of HIV quasispecies to establish linkage in cases of probable transfusion transmission. Transfusion 1994;34(Suppl):64S.

Presentations

